

Engagement Of Miss Ruth Elstner And Samuel L. Marshall Announced

By OLLIE P. LANNON.

Mrs. JOSEPH M. EVANS announces the engagement and approaching marriage of her daughter, Miss Ruth Elstner, to Samuel L. Marshall, of El Paso.

This announcement, one of the most important of the autumn, will be of interest to many here and in San Antonio, Texas. Miss Elstner's former home, The Elstners, a popular member of the younger set, has made her home with her sister, Mrs. Evans, for the past three years, and attended the high school here.

Mr. Marshall served in the army during the war with a lieutenant's commission and was in France for two years. He and his bride will make their home in this city, where his business interests are located. They will be at home at a suite in the Jewel apartments.

The wedding service will take place

Saturday afternoon at Central Baptist church at 5 o'clock, with the pastor of the church, Rev. George T. McCall, officiating.

Mrs. Joseph Evans will attend her sister as matron of honor and Mrs. Joseph W. Evans, a sister of Mr. Marshall, will be another attendant. Madison Wood will be Mr. Marshall's best man.

The marriage of Miss Helen D. Grover, of Highland, N. J., to Fred S. Knappe, executive secretary of the National War Work council of the Y. M. C. A., is announced at San Antonio. The ceremony was performed by Maj. Herbert Stanley Smith, chaplain of the U. S. army, in the presence of a few friends. Knappe is well known in El Paso through his connection with the Army Y. M. C. A. Soldiers' club which has been established under his supervision and which was recently opened for the soldiers of the city.

Some Experiments Are Costly

It is false economy to try to duplicate scientific dry cleaning successes at home. Many a valuable garment has been ruined in that way.

Be Careful What You Wash Your Hair With

Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali, which is very injurious, as it dries the scalp and makes the hair brittle.

The best thing to use is Multifid constant oil shampoo, for this is pure and entirely greaseless. It's very cheap and beats anything else all to pieces. You can get Multifid at any drug store, and a few ounces will last the whole family for months.

Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in, about a teaspoonful. All that is required. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, cleanses thoroughly and rinses out easily. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and is soft, fresh looking, shiny, fluffy, wavy, and easy to handle. Multifid is pleasant and takes out every particle of dirt, dirt and dandruff. Be sure your druggist gives you Multifid. Ad.

"TEETHINA HELPS MY BABY MORE THAN ANYTHING ELSE," SHE SAYS

There is nothing that so touches the heartstrings of a mother as the cries of her baby during the day and night. There is a remedy which gives grateful relief from pains of little children when they are cutting teeth. That remedy is Teethina.

Mrs. Hattie Gilder, of Boxley, Ga., says: "I am glad to say that my baby has never been sick, but I know that if I had not given him Teethina when he was teething he would have suffered just as other babies have suffered. Teethina helps my baby more than anything else. Teethina contains no narcotics, and the ingredients are printed on every package."

If your druggist does not sell Teethina, send thirty cents to the McNett Laboratories, Columbus, Georgia, and the package will be mailed you together with a beautiful little booklet, entitled, "Baby."—Adv.

Army Men With Aid Of Dan Cupid Have Invaded Tennis Club Ranks

CUPID has invaded the ranks of the Tennis club and has laid siege to the hearts of a number of its members. Just a week or two ago the club was formed and since that time there has been a constant round of engagements, dinners, weddings and rumors of engagements among its members.

Very soon if the rumor is correct there will be a scattering of the ranks and El Paso will again be doing the military man who, for El Paso Cupid, are devastating the ranks of the club.

First there was Nancy Edwards, who became a demure young army matron a few months ago, the bride of Lieut. Henry E. Klopfer, of the Eight Cavalry. Now she presides at pretty quarters at the post and is a charming hostess to the other members of the club from time to time.

Next came the engagement announcement of Harriet Howe, one of the most popular army girls. Her marriage to Capt. H. C. Jones is an important event of the holiday season.

It is rumored, however, that two other engagements among the members and perhaps a third one may be disclosed within a short time. The members of the club, and that is not telling, are: Misses Virginia, Beatrice, Burman, and Alvin, Orndorff, Mrs. Klopfer, Miss Frances Smith, Miss Dorcas Anne Payne, Miss Howe, Miss Marion Anna, Miss Mary Bowen and Miss Anna Magoffin.

An open forum meeting of the El Paso City Federation of Women's Clubs met Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the central Y. W. C. A. building with the president, Mrs. Foster Carter, presiding.

Sept. A. H. Hughes, of the city schools, gave a talk on the advantages of the Stanton bill, which provides that people living in country districts be permitted to tax themselves as much as those in order to provide more schools.

Mrs. H. C. Greer read the introductory address which was read by the general federation president in San Francisco, to illustrate how much can be said in one minute. The speech contained words.

Mrs. B. H. Carrington reported on the "Made in El Paso" flower booth at the International exposition. Mrs. Altha Bartlett gave a talk Mrs. Robert Townsend read a poem entitled "Your Club."

Headings from the Federation Bulletin were given by Mrs. Carter, Mrs. F. D. Rootes, Mrs. S. J. Pannell and Mrs. O. L. Rootes. Reports on women's club work in New Mexico were given by Mrs. Edith C. Lane. "Responsibilities of Mothers in Education" was the topic of the last hour.

The regular meeting of the Tennis club held Wednesday afternoon will be postponed this week on account of the postponed game at Fort Bliss. The club will meet Thursday afternoon instead on the court of the old Country club. Later the members will take a walk with Mrs. W. White at the white quarters in the old field artillery barracks.

The Women's Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church will meet at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening at the church. Mrs. E. L. Johnson, who has lived for seven years in China, will speak.

eral hours to visit Mrs. Armstrong's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Elliott. The trip from Lordsburg to Deming was made in an hour and a minute, and from Deming to El Paso in three hours.

Mrs. Raymond Krupp returned Sunday from the east. She spent a portion of the time with Miss Birdie Krupp, in New York, and a few weeks with her other daughter, Miss Paula for some time in Maine. Miss Birdie remained in New York to continue her studies at Columbia university, and Miss Paula has entered the freshman class at Wellesley college.

Mr. and Mrs. Krupp and their son, Bernard, are at their new home, 301 West Boulevard.

J. W. Crowder, who has been on a business trip to Chicago, will return home the latter part of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bassett and their small daughter, Myra, returned Monday from Santa Monica.

Miss Helen O'Shea, who spent the summer in Colorado, will return the latter part of October.

Mrs. S. H. Worrall will return today from California.

El Pasoans Away.

Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Hemman have sold their home and furnishings on Copper street and Mrs. Hemman and daughter will leave Tuesday for an extended visit in California. Later they will go to Europe, returning here about the Christmas holidays.

Frank Anna and his daughter, Miss Marion, left Sunday for the east. Mr. Anna will remain in the city, and Miss Anna will remain until the Christmas holidays. She will be the guest of her aunt, Mrs. Luke McNamee, in New York, and during her stay her uncle, Capt. Luke McNamee, will be in New York, coming in with the Atlantic fleet. Capt. McNamee commands the Nevada.

Army Affairs.

Mrs. L. E. Case, of San Antonio, Texas, recently appointed hostess at the Red Cross convalescent home at Fort Bliss, will arrive today to take up her duties. Mrs. Beatrice Callison, former hostess, left Monday for her new station as Red Cross hostess at Camp Pike, Ark.

Mrs. J. H. Leas, of El Paso, has been appointed reconstruction aide at the Red Cross shop at Fort Bliss, which is to be reopened for class in basketry, beadwork and other branches taught in reconstruction. Mrs. Leas is a graduate of the art institute of the University of Chicago.

Dances.

The fortnightly dance of the Automobile club will be given Wednesday evening at the clubhouse.

BETTER BABIES

The crusade for better babies has spread from coast to coast, and taken firm hold of American Mothers. Few women realize how much the ill health of the mother influences the unborn child, both physically and mentally. Women who suffer from indigestion, nervousness, headache, etc., should rely on Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made from roots and herbs, which for nearly forty years has been the standard remedy for these ailments.—Adv.
